The Chartered Institute of Marketing
The Chartered Institute of Marketing is the leading international professional marketing body with some 50,000 members worldwide. First established in 1911 it defines the marketing standards that operate in the UK and is the global champion of best marketing practice. The Institute exists to develop the marketing profession, maintain professional standards and improve the skills of marketing practitioners, enabling them to deliver exceptional results for their organizations. It does this by providing membership, qualifications and training to marketing professionals around the world.

The Greater London Region (GLR) of The Chartered Institute of Marketing
There are some 5,000 members within the region. Half of these members are registered as studying for professional Chartered Institute of Marketing qualifications. Members run the region on a voluntary basis, through the regional Board and local teams. The region offers a host of local services including seminars, networking events, careers fairs, student support and regional news.
